

A RAGTIME JUBILEE

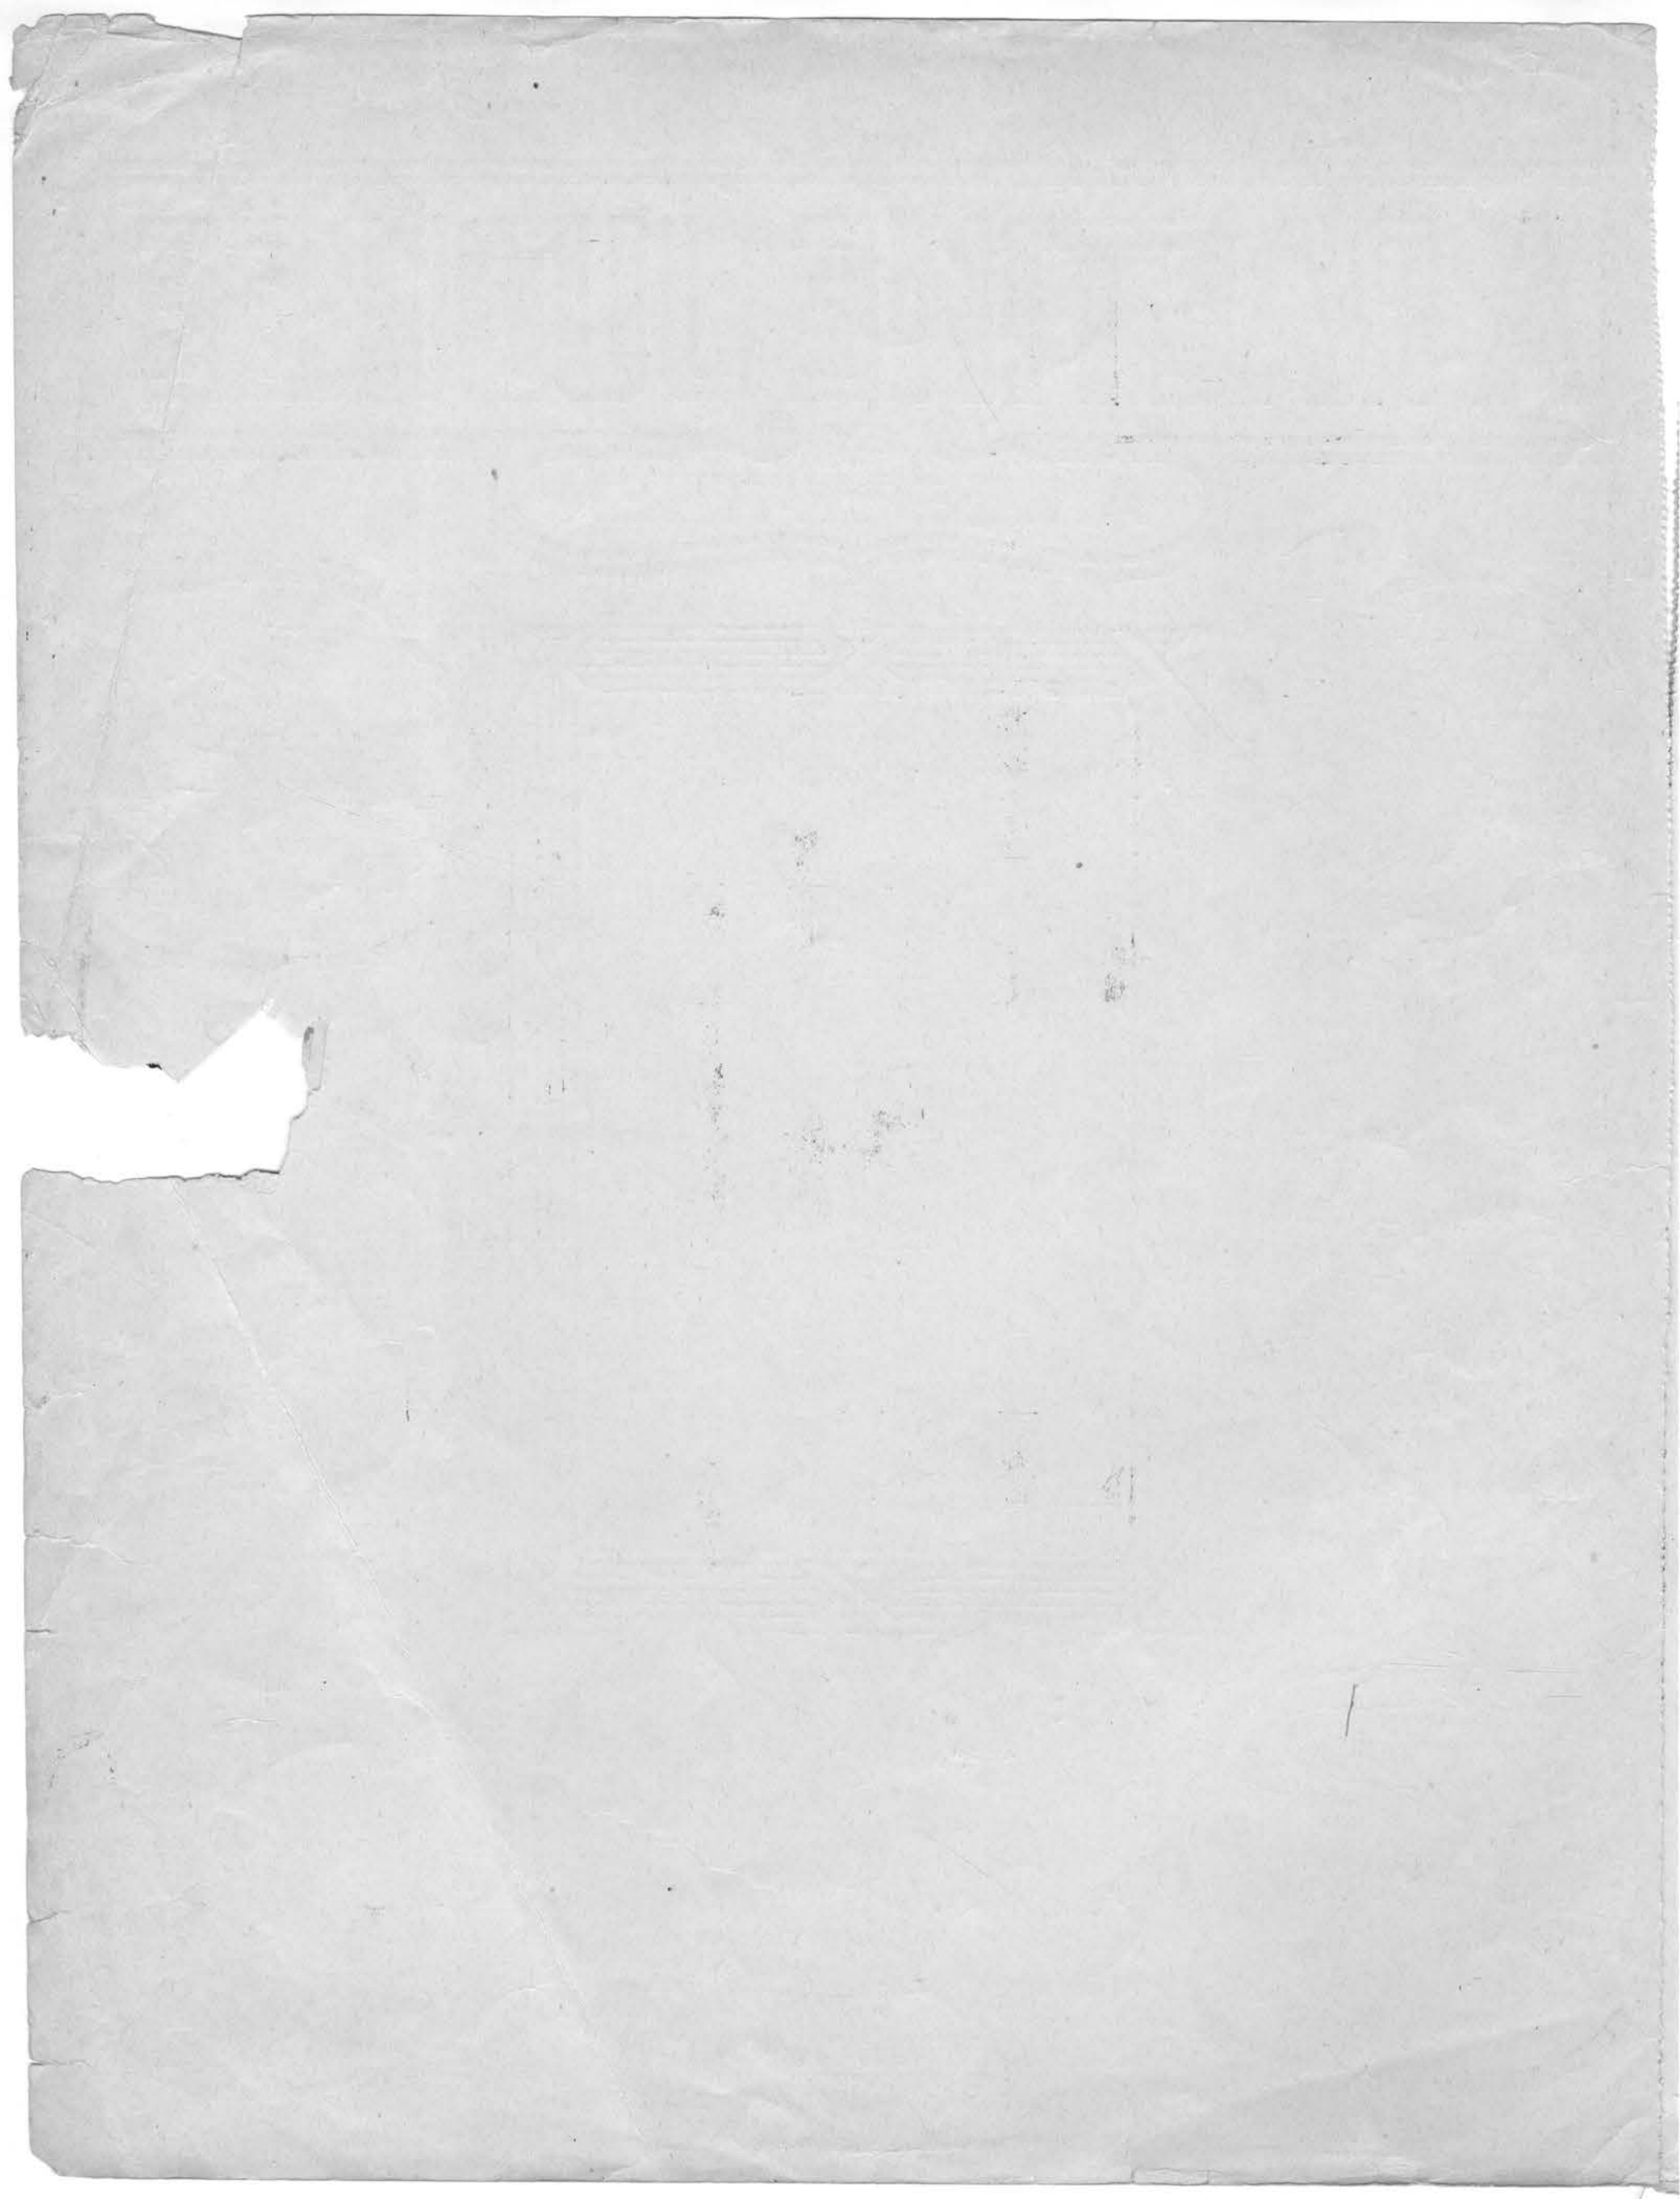

BY
A. LEE WATHEN

FEATURED BY
SPENCER & MAUER

A. LEE WATHEN CO.
MUSIC PUBLISHERS
526 FOURTH AVE., LOUISVILLE, KY.

A Ragtime Jubilee

A. LEE WATHEN

Moderato

§ VAMP

VOICE

Have you heard there's We will dance the go - ing to be — A real rag - time Ju - bi - lee,

Tur - key Trot Lose our - selves we don't care what,

It is goin' to be some grand ball, 'Round the cor-ner at the
And we'll put on that "Oh you Bear," O-ver here my Babe and old Town Hall. See that all the pret-ty "Wrens" o-ver there. We can dance sure all that night,

Come and bring their gen-tle-men friends, We will keep in
We can dance till broad-day light, We will have one step just grand To the mu-sic of the band._____

glo-ri-ous time, 'Cause that night we will all shine._____

CHORUS

Come one and all to— this here ball, A rag-time Ju-bi - lee,— Put on your best, Look out of sight, Some class you'll see.— Oh you

Bun ny Hug, Oh you hes-i - tate Dan - ces "up to date"— and you can see, It's a go - in' to be a Rag-time Ju - bi - lee.—

TRY THESE ON YOUR PIANO.

Forever and Aye

Andante Cantabile
Words & Music
by A. LEE WATHEN
S.P.

Queen of my dreams, Thou art di-vine. I'll live for Thee, I'll e'er be Thine Queen of my dreams, Thou art my shrine. Pride of my heart, Oh! Thou art mine

My thoughts of Thee, My Dear Sweet-heart, 'Tis the one thought, We'll nev-er part Al-though my Dear, When I'm a-way, I dream of Thee, by night and day

My Dar-ling one, Thy love I seek. I am Thy slave, how'd at Thy feet
Oh! But I crave, one lov-ing glance. From those grand eyes, that beam and dance

Copyright 1913 by A. LEE WATHEN

"I Want You All the Time"

Slow Valse
Words & Music
by A. LEE WATHEN

You are the one, dear, when some-one feels sad, You are the
You are the one, dear, with heart good and true, You are the one, dear, to make some one glad. You are the one, dear, that one, dear, no oth-er but you, You are the one, dear, that

Dedicated to "The Orphans Pleasure" and "Waller Doll" Clubs.

The International Centennial MARCH

Lively
ENGLAND AND AMERICA
A. LEE WATHEN

AMERICA

Copyright 1913 by A. Lee Wathen.

FOR SALE AT ALL MUSIC STORES.